

Code of Conduct for a Northern Tango incorporated community members and casual participants

Welcome to the Northern Tango Incorporated community, where the joy of Argentine Tango is harmonised with a commitment to respect, safety, and inclusivity. Our community thrives on the rich diversity of its members and casual participants who contribute to the vibrant tapestry of dance and camaraderie. This Code of Conduct serves as a guide to foster a welcoming and secure environment, ensuring that every member and participant experiences the beauty of tango with a sense of belonging and mutual respect.

Respect: All members and participants of the community are expected to always show respect for each other. This includes respecting differences in cultural backgrounds, dance abilities, and personal beliefs.

Safety: Safety is a top priority in our community. Members and participants Must take care to ensure that the dance floor is safe for everyone. This includes avoiding moves that could cause injury to others.

Consent: Tango is a dance that requires consent from both partners. Members Must always ask for and receive consent before initiating a dance.

Inclusion: We are committed to creating an inclusive community that welcomes people from all backgrounds. Discrimination or harassment of any kind will not be tolerated.

Communication: Members and participants are encouraged to communicate openly and honestly with each other. If there is a problem or concern, members and participants Must feel comfortable bringing it to the attention of community leaders.

Confidentiality: Members and participants Must respect the privacy of others in the community. This includes not sharing personal information without permission.

Responsibility: Members and participants are responsible for their own behavior at all times. This includes taking responsibility for any actions that may have a negative impact on others in the community.

Community Spirit: We are all part of a larger community, and members and participants Must strive to support and uplift each other. This includes celebrating each other's achievements and offering support during difficult times.

As we dance forward in the spirit of unity and shared passion, let this Code of Conduct be a testament to our collective commitment. By upholding these principles of respect, safety, consent, inclusion, communication, confidentiality, responsibility, and community spirit, we build not only a dance community but a family where each member and participant is valued. Let the rhythm of our shared values resonate through every tango step, creating an enduring harmony that elevates our Northern Tango community. Thank you for being a vital part of this collective journey.

Northern Tango Incorporated Committee